CAROLYNE BIRD 	FORENSIC SCIENTIST Carolyn spends the majority of her days looking at handwriting and signatures for a whole host of criminal investigations including homicides, fraud, drug offences and sexual assaults; and sometimes ends up in the witness box in court. Unlike DNA or fingerprint evidence, which can associate a person with a scene or item, handwriting evidence can go further to show a person's intent, as was the case in the key evidence Carolyn provided for a recent NSW murder trial which lead to the suspect Emma Barrett pleading guilty. http://www.theherald.com.au/news/local/news/general/kill-my-ex-womans-murder-list-for-her-lover/1455479.aspx?storypage=0 Carolyn enjoys her work so much that a proportion of her non-work time is consumed with undertaking research investigating the skill of forensic document examiners (of which she is one) for her PhD. Her work and study have facilitated numerous trips to laboratories and conferences in different states and countries – most recently France and Poland – to learn and share information. Travel is a passion, and when Carolyn can't be out exploring the world with her own senses, the world comes to her in the form of travellers seeking a local abode in which to stay (for free!). Spare minutes are spent making things like felted bags, knitted garments, mini muffins and soft toys.	Time	Mon 23rd	Tues 24th	Wed 25th	Thu 26th	Fri 27th

MATTHEW GOODE 	SPECIAL COUNSEL Matthew Goode works as Special Counsel in the Legislation and Legal Policy Section of the Attorney-General's Department. He has worked as an advisor to the Attorney-General of the day on criminal law and criminal justice policy and worked on legislation dealing with that area of the law since 1991. This involves work on such areas as sentencing, terrorism and serious drug offences. He is also Chair of the Model Criminal Law Officers Committee (a national committee of senior legal officers reporting to the Standing Committee of Attorneys-General) and an Adjunct Associate Professor of Law, at the University of Adelaide. He edits the Australian Criminal Reports and the Australian Criminal Law Journal. Once upon a time, he was Mayor and Alderman of the St Peters Council and, in another guise, Dean of the University of Adelaide Law School. Spare time activities include walking, reading, watching sports and being an active member of the local Progressive Jewish community.	Time	Mon 23rd	Tues 24th	Wed 25th	Thu 26th	Fri 27th

PAUL HELLANDER 	MANAGER, INTERPRETING AND TRANSLATING CENTRE Paul Hellander is a linguist by profession, a traveller by destiny and a public servant by chance. Raised on a diet of Latin and Classical Greek and several modern languages Paul spent his first years in Australia teaching Modern Greek to Greeks and training interpreters and translators. Paul gave it up in the mid 90s to write travel guides, take photos and voyage the planet in search of traveller truth with Lonely Planet Publications and other publishers. After dodging Serbian police among Albanian Kosovar activists, infiltrating the Gaza strip in search of travel intelligence, talking his way out of a Turkish military blockade on Cyprus, repelling fire ants in the Amazon jungles and some forty travel guides later, he relinquished passports and boarding passes for a job in Multicultural SA. After a period of reintegration to normality Paul became Manager of Multicultural SA's Interpreting and Translating Centre yet still devotes an annual pilgrimage to his spiritual home Greece. Paul's real passions are growing super hot chillies, electronic gadgetry and riding his bicycle long distance. In November last year he rode from Adelaide to Melbourne while in July this year he took his bike to San Francisco and rode it solo along Highway 1 to Los Angeles. Paul talks best about travel, languages, West Coast American music and the theory and practice of espionage.	Time	Mon 23rd	Tues 24th	Wed 25th	Thu 26th	Fri 27th

SUZANNE MAIDEN 	ESTATE SERVICES OFFICER, GENEALOGY Imagine you need to locate many relatives, scattered all over the world, for one person - and at the start all you know is the name of that one person who has died. And the first contact you ever have with this one person is via their death certificate. It is a jig-saw puzzle. And it is the job I do. The research I do daily attempts to identify who to find, locates the official records documenting the people found, and the next step is to locate the people - wherever they may be in the world. And sometimes to convince them that it is not a hoax - they really are going to inherit money because their relative died, without a valid Will. That is the reality of what I do every day. And it's a lot of fun. The research I have recommended or completed myself has led to missing beneficiaries located all over Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Europe, Afghanistan and Egypt. I also provide limited advice on Genealogy to members of the public. Come along and learn how I do it and where I look to locate the more elusive beneficiaries I need to find.	Time	Mon 23rd	Tues 24th	Wed 25th	Thu 26th	Fri 27th

DAVID NORTON 	DIRECTOR, CORPORATE SERVICES SAFECOM My career highlights the importance of education and being prepared to have a go and do different things. You are not developed from within your comfort zone. Growing up in Elizabeth, seeing Barnsey at the rugby club, playing soccer and recreating in the front bar of the Old Spot Hotel provided me with experience of many sides of life. Following a failed career in a brick factory, and deciding its time to grow up, I commenced in the public service and went to TAFE, followed by the University of Adelaide under the mature student entry scheme, and more recently completing an MBA at UniSA I have held the positions of Director Finance, South Australian Housing Trust, General Manager, The Queen Elizabeth Hospital and currently Director Corporate Services SAFECOM.	Time	Mon 23rd	Tues 24th	Wed 25th	Thu 26th	Fri 27th
